

Ultimate Wrecker™

BEHIND THE DESIGN:

From the start we knew that in order to make the HP2 Line great again, we had to re-imagine what performance from this line should look like. After countless messages and meetings with R&D, it was determined that the ball that set the original HP2 performance standard could be modified to meet the needs of today in terms of motion and reaction.

Inside you will notice the same legendary weightblock shape from the original Wrecker. This part when placed inside our A.I. Core Technology provided the ULTIMATE amount of motion we were looking for to re-establish the HP2 Line. But we didn't stop there. We then spent countless hours with R&D to develop our latest coverstock technology that covers all that you need and want for Medium Oil Conditions. PURE reaction, PURE predictability and PURE performance which ultimately means PURE-Response.
